From Mrs. Gruber:

Thank you all for a great Catholic Schools Week. The week was well planned and a lot of fun! We thank everyone who ran the book fair and put together the fun activities during the week. Below you will find a note from Kristin Steltzer. Thank you for your donations for a local food pantry.

We have had many students coming to school not feeling well and being sent home. Please keep your child home if they are not feeling well. The family handbook has guidelines for you.

Please return your registrations as soon as possible so we can make plans for next year. Thank you!

Due to the death of Mrs. Sorenson's brother, she will not be at school this week. There will not be any band before school, no band lessons on Wednesday and no piano lessons. Mrs. Van Helvoirt subbed on Monday for general music classes and will again on Friday. Please keep Mrs. Sorenson and her family in your prayers.

Thank you to everyone that visited the Scholastic Book Fair last week! We appreciate the support! The final numbers will be tallied after the online book fair is complete on February 9th! Preliminary numbers are looking FANTASTIC!! If you were unable to attend the Fair in person, we invite you to visit our online Book Fair at scholastic.com/fair. Our Online Fair is available until February 9th!
