From Mrs. Gruber:

This is from today's Gospel:
Peter began to say to Jesus,
"We have given up everything and followed you." MK 10:28

"We are called to completely surrender our own will and preferences in life to serve Christ in accord with His divine plan. Reflect, today, on how ready and willing you are to say "Yes" to Christ no matter what He asks of you. Are you willing to say "Yes" even to that which He has not yet revealed to you? Say "Yes" today to whatever your future holds and God will bless you in abundance.

Lord, no matter what it is You call me to do in life, the answer is "Yes." I want to serve Your will selflessly and completely. Help me to live that calling with generosity and love. Jesus, I trust in You." <https://catholic-daily-reflections.com/2018/05/28/what-is-god-calling-you-to-give-up-2/>

This time of the year many people celebrate graduation, marriage and other changes in their lives. The future is bright for many! I pray that our graduates say "Yes" and trust that God has a plan for them. Congratulations to all graduates especially our eighth graders. We will miss them all!

Congratulations to Wrightstown Wrestlers that made All-State Academic! Getting it done on the mat and in the classroom! 1st team Ben Durocher. 2nd team Matt Maitland, Logan Koel, and Quincy Klister. Honorable Mention Ethan Witcpalek and Kaden Verbeten!!
