From the principal:

“Then Peter came and said to him, ‘Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?’ Jesus said to him, ‘Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.’” Matthew 18:21–22

“Meditating on the readings of this day, Pope Francis distinguishes between shallow apologies and true forgiveness. True forgiveness rests on being open to the grace of God. Unwillingness to forgive is like closing a door to God that we need to keep open. We can allow God’s forgiveness to enter our lives to the degree we are willing to forgive others with open hearts.

Help us be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and to keep an open door in our willingness to forgive and act towards others in mercy and love.”

These reflections are from a daily Lent reflection from Loyola Press that I receive.

This Friday is the deadline to secure the lowest tuition rate. Thank you to all who have registered. We have almost all families registered!

We did not receive information about the Wrightstown summer school yet, but someone saw on their website that registration opens this Friday. Here is the link to the booklet.
